The Ascension of the Lord

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord commemorates the moment, forty days after the Resurrection, when Jesus was taken up into heaven in the presence of his disciples. It marks the completion of his earthly mission and the beginning of his exalted reign at the right hand of the Father, where he intercedes for us and prepares a place for his Church.

Traditionally, the Ascension has been celebrated on the Thursday of the sixth week of Easter, exactly forty days after Easter Sunday, following the chronology found in Scripture. However, in many regions — particularly in the United States and other parts of the world — the solemnity is transferred to the following Sunday. This pastoral adaptation, permitted by the Holy See, is intended to allow more of the faithful to participate in the celebration of this important mystery of the faith. Regardless of when it is celebrated, it is a holy day of obligation.

The feast of the Ascension has been observed since at least the 4th century. Saint Augustine, writing in the early 5th century, attested that it was of Apostolic origin and a universal observance in the Church, indicating that it had been so long before his time. This makes the feast of the Ascension one of the oldest and most significant celebrations in the liturgical calendar.

2025 Fathers Day Novena of Masses will begin on Sunday, June 15, 2025. The Father's Day Novena envelopes can be found in the foyer in the church. Please take an envelope
